SECTION 4 – ENVIRONMENTAL SUSTAINABILITY

Environmental Sustainability Measures

The NCC encourages all event organizers to minimize the environmental impact of their events and to implement strategies to improve the environmental, social and economic benefits from their events.

Please include details of the measures you will implement to ensure that your event will be managed to protect the environment. This could include initiatives including waste reduction and recycling, energy efficiency, minimizing transportation distances, parking restrictions, water use and conservation, cycling facilities and promotion of public transport.

SECTION 5 – SITE PLAN

Please include a site plan of the proposed event venue, which must show the dimensions and proposed location of all event infrastructures, including:

- | | | |
|-----------------------------|------------------|--|
| -barricades | -stages | -portable toilets and handwashing stations |
| -tents, shelters and booths | -signs / banners | -garbage and recycling bins |
| -lighting towers | -PA, speakers | -entry and exit points |
| -emergency evacuation areas | | |

SECTION 6 – LAND USE FEES AND LIABILITY INSURANCE

A public liability insurance coverage is required with a minimum coverage of $2,000,000 and the NCC has to be listed as additional insured. The Certificate of Insurance will need to be provided at least 2 weeks prior to the event. Your event will be assessed in accordance with the NCC's land use fee structure. These fees will be communicated to you at least 2 weeks prior to the event, once you receive the site reservation confirmation and considerations.

SECTION 7 – CONTACT US

Please return this completed form with the supporting documents to:

Contact Centre
National Capital Commission
202-40 Elgin Street
Ottawa, Ontario K1P 1C7
Phone: 613-239-5000

Email: info@ncc-ccn.ca

Your application will be assessed and you will be advised about venue availability, venue suitability, documentation and approvals required before final approval can be granted for your event. Events taking place in Ottawa are subject to Special Events on Public and Private Property By-Law (No. 2013-232). The NCC takes no responsibility for any third party commitments entered into by the applicant if an application is declined.

SECTION 8 – NEXT STEPS

Our application review process starts after the administrative fee is received. The review period is no later than 90 days prior to the date of a high-impact event, 60 days prior to a medium-impact event, or 30 days* prior to a low-impact event. The assessment of low- and medium-impact events during the peak period from April to August will be subject to a review period of 60 days. Once we have reviewed all aspects of the application and have assessed the risks, we will inform you of our decision. We will, at that time, inform you of further requirements for your event. This could include, but is not limited to, land use fees, site capacity, site visits with our monitoring team, event plans (as per below).

A detailed event plan will include:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|---|
| -insurance details | -security and emergency management |
| -traffic management | -venue or park management plan |
| -noise management | -site plans |
| -temporary structures | -waste management, including waste minimization and recycling |
| -first aid and public health | |
| -health services, toilets, amenities | |

This final approval will come in the form of a permit. The permit will only be valid once we have received the insurance certificate, payment and the signed copy of the permit in our offices prior to the event.

SECTION 9 – PRIVACY AND PERSONAL INFORMATION PROTECTION NOTICE

Purpose of Collection: For activity management on NCC land.

Documents to Supply: Event application is voluntary; however, a completed application form is required for holding an activity on NCC land.

SECTION 10 – APPLICANT DECLARATION*

I declare that all the information in the application is, to the best of my knowledge, true and correct. I also understand that if the information is incomplete, the application may be delayed or rejected or more information may be requested. I acknowledge that if the information provided is misleading may void the application. I accept delays in processing will arise out of any inadequacies in the material submitted in support of the application. I understand that this application, in no way, represents approval of the event and/or a guarantee of the availability of the site.
